REPORTS.

Report of the Board of Education.

The enthronement of Christ in the lives of men is God's purpose in organizing the Church. It is for this alone that she exists. It is her duty to lay hold upon every means that will bring about such a result. She must insist that the influences brought to bear upon men must look toward making Christ King. Hence she should seek to provide an education of a Christian nature. The Church alone has power to do this. For the State to attempt to teach Christ would be the narrowest bigotry on her part. The things that belong unto Cæsar do not extend unto the religious part of man. The State may teach a dead morality, but she cannot proclaim a living Christ. It was unto the Church and not unto the State that Christ delivered the great commission.

We commend the faithful work that has been done for this cause during the past year by the Southern Christian Advocate. We trust that the paper will continue to place the subject of Christian education in the proper light before our people. This is rendered the more necessary, because of the unfair treatment that the Church schools receive at the hands of the majority of secular newspapers. Our people need to be taught that ridicule is not argument, and that baseless assertions are worthless.

Your Board would urge our Presiding Elders on their second quarterly round to magnify this subject. Let them preach upon it and inquire closely, not only as regards our people's interest in our colleges, but also as regards their attitude to the common schools within the bounds of their respective charges. Let them do all in their power to ally closely the Church with these schools. If the Church will only do her duty toward these, then it will not be necessary to canvass for our colleges.

Your Board would also urge a more general observance of Children's Day, and that the collections taken on that day be applied as the Discipline directs.

We note with pleasure that the General Board of Education has recently organized a Teacher's Bureau. We trust that our teachers and people will patronize this agency in preference to others.

We nominate Rev. C. B. Smith as Secretary of Education for this Conference.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The increasing prosperity of this college is a cause of gratitude to every true Methodist of South Carolina. The president writes that a strong religious influence pervades the college community. Let our people send their sons where they will be led to Christ and not away from Him. We are rejoiced to receive encouraging words from Dr. Carlisle in reference to the presence of the young lady students at the college. We recommend that the trustees be instructed to admit at once women to all the college classes as students. We ask that the sum of $2,600 be assessed to meet the current expenses of the college.

COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

This college is having a prosperous session. The student body is large and well behaved. The college is growing in popularity. The time has come for the Church to stand firmly for Christian womanhood, and it is to this college that our Church is to look largely for such a type. We recommend that the second Sunday in March, or as soon thereafter as possible, be set aside as Columbia Female College Day, and on that day the pastors put before their congregations the needs of the College and take collections therefor.

FITTING SCHOOLS.

The Wofford College and the Carlisle Fitting Schools, also the Cokesbury Conference School, are doing a much needed work. A boarding hall for young women has been erected at the Carlisle Fitting School by the citizens of Bamberg and a few other friends of the schools.

PAINE AND LANE INSTITUTES.

These schools have sent in a report to this Conference. We are glad to note that this work is growing upon our people. We have been pleased to have Bishop Holsey with us to represent these institutions. We ask that $440 be assessed for the General Board of Education, and that $700 be assessed for Paine and Lane Institutes, and that the Joint Board of Finance arrange for the collection of these amounts.

We nominate Rev. B. M. Grier on the examining committee of the fourth year in place of Rev. J. K. McCain.

We ask the Bishop to make the following appointments: J. A. Rice, President of Columbia Female College; S. Lander, President of Williamston Female College; G. W. Walker, President of Paine Institute; C. B. Smith, Professor and Agent of Wofford College; R. E. Stackhouse, Professor of Columbia Female College; L. F. Beaty, Assistant Editor of Sunday School Literature; S. A. Weber, Assistant Editor of Southern Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

P. F. KILGO, Secretary. D. R. DUNCAN, Chairman.

Report of the Board of Managers and Trustees of the Epworth Orphanage.

Florence, S. C., December 13, 1897.

The Board of Managers and Trustees of the Epworth Orphanage beg leave to submit their annual report, as follows:

Another successful year has been added to the history of our Orphanage.

The value of our plant is now estimated at $30,000. Material improvements have been made according to our needs and means.

Last year we had the misfortune to lose, by a storm, our barn and stables, just before they were completed. They were again rebuilt, and again destroyed, this time by fire. In the conflagration we lost our entire outfit of wagons, farming utensils, provisions, and some live stock. They have been rebuilt a second time.

A girls' dormitory with fourteen rooms has been built of brick, and furnished, and furniture has been added to the other dormitories. A laundry and a temporary dining room have been built and partially furnished. Our printing plant has been enlarged. All at a cost of $5,293 03.

We are prepared to furnish employment for our children in the printing department under the superintendency of a competent foreman. Excellent work is done here, and those who desire printing done would do well to confer with our Superintendent before engaging work elsewhere.

The farm, for causes beyond our control, has not been as remunerative this year as it was last year, but it has done fairly well.

The financial report of the Superintendent, properly audited, is satisfactory. We have had cash receipts from all sources amounting to $10,242.02. Merchandise and other donations estimated at $1,925.33. The printing department yielded a net profit of $132.57. All of which have been judiciously expended, except a small balance in hand.

We have now sixty-seven children under the care of the Orphanage, whose wants—physical, mental and spiritual—have been carefully and tenderly supplied. Several of the children have professed conversion, and they have joined the Church.

The children generally enjoy good health, and appear as happy and as well behaved as you may find children in most parental homes.

We cannot commend too highly the arduous and efficient labors of our Superintendent.

The Board respectfully recommend that the Bishop presiding appoint Rev. G. H. Waddell Superintendent of the Epworth Orphanage for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,
A. J. STOKES,
President of Board of Managers and Trustees.

[We regret that Sunday School Report No. 1 has been misplaced and cannot be published in this issue of Minutes.—EDITORS.]

Report of Board of Colportage.

We are glad to be able to state that the work of sending out pure literature into the homes of our preachers and people is growing. More books have been sold in this Conference this year than in any year in our history. Our Colporter, Rev. T. J. Gattis, has been in every District of the Conference. He has sold $7,500 worth of best literature during the year, and has done much to create a desire for the best reading by sermons and speeches and personal contact with our preachers and people.

We recommend that Rev. T. J. Gattis be continued as the Colporter for this Conference for the ensuing year. H. B. BROWNE, Chairman.

Report of Committee on Books and Periodicals.

The pastor is the messenger of God to the great congregation; but if he would lift his people to higher conceptions of truth and to purer experiences of gospel grace, he must follow up his pulpit work by placing in their homes our books and periodicals. Our age demands just such agencies as these furnish; and there is no enterprise which is calculated to yield richer fruit and accomplish more permanent results for good than the circulation of our own literature among the people.

The fine report made by our publishing house for the past year is very gratifying, and we take pleasure in commending the wise and conservative policy by which our agents were led to such notable results in the face of the great stringencies of the times.

The Christian Advocate, published at Nashville, Tenn., is indispensable to the Methodist family who wishes to be conversant with leading current events in our great connection, and to have a broad knowledge of the onward movements of the Church in the world.

The Church should congratulate herself that she has such an able and efficient editor for the Methodist Review as Dr. Jno. J. Tigert, under whom it has achieved such noted success. No other magazine can take its place in a Methodist home, and we commend it to the careful consideration of every one.

No periodical is better adapted to the enlightenment of our minds and the quickening of our consciences on the subject of our missionary work than the Methodist Review of Missions.

The World for Christ is calculated to imbue the coming generation with a missionary spirit and make them eager workers in the spread of the gospel in every land. It should be in every home, as the price, only 10 cents, is within the reach of even the poorest.

The Short History of Missions, by Geo. Smith, D. D., LL. D., is worthy of the most careful study by our preachers and people.

We are rejoiced to note the increased circulation of our Sunday school periodicals and the support given to the Epworth Era. These are well worthy the united patronage of the Church.

There is no paper in our connection which stands so closely related to our people as our own Conference organ, The Southern Christian Advocate. It is an agency for untold good wherever it goes, and is worthy in every respect of our earnest and united support.

We are also glad to note the publication of our Conference Annals, a book from the pen of one of our worthiest and most honored members, Rev. A. M. Chreitzberg, D.D. We bespeak for it a large circulation.

Your Committee presents for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference enjoins upon its preachers to use their utmost exertions to place The Southern Christian Advocate in every Methodist home within the bounds of our Conference.

Resolved, That we endorse the administration of our Publishing House, and that we pledge our zealous endeavors to provide all our people with the publications of our house at Nashville. H. BAER, Chairman.

Report of Committee on Bible Cause.

The word of God carries its own credentials with it. It only needs to be disseminated to vindicate its Divine power in the conversion and uplifting of the people. Our part, then, is to scatter it everywhere. And in this important work we recognize the American Bible Society as the chief agency. It is doing the work of the churches better than each could possibly do it for itself. It is a great missionary agency—sending the light of Salvation to the neglected at home, and to the heathen abroad. This is the ground of its appeal for our sympathy and support. The Bible Society is not a rich corporation, independent of our offerings, but only our honored and faithful almoner. It is by the measure of our contributions that the tide of its benefactions flows out. We are recreant if we fail to recognize and use it.

The agent, Rev. Dr. Law, has met with us, and given information and counsel. The receipts of the Society have fallen off of recent years, and a crisis in the work has been reached, when there must be open doors unentered unless the Church responds to the demands. The agent is hopeful that the Society in depending more on the direct support of the churches will solve the difficult problem before it. He will be glad to furnish pastors with needed information, in reports and leaflets, to arouse the conscience of the people. And we have no further suggestion to make than that the law of our Church touching the collections be faithfully carried out.

For the Committee,
J. L. STOKES.

District Conference Journals.

The Committee on District Conference Journals, having examined the records of the Districts, beg leave to submit the following report:

The Committee find that all the Districts are supplied with good Journals. The Journals of the Charleston, Cokesbury and Columbia districts are neatly and well kept. Also the Journal of the Greenville District, except that the minutes of the last Conference were not signed by the presiding officer.

In the Journal of the Florence District, the name of Rev. C. H. Clyde appears as Rev. H. C. Clyde.

In the Sumter District Journal the names of Revs. Wm. Carson and J. J. Workman appear on the roll as local preachers.

The Journal of the Rock Hill District, while it is correct, appears too much crowded, and a little more space should have been allowed between the head lines.

The Committee does not think it necessary for the Secretary, after he has recorded the minutes of the Conference and signed them, to probate or certify that they are correct.

In the Journal of the Marion District we find no report from a Committee on Quarterly Conference Journals.

In the Journal of the Spartanburg District the names of the local and clerical members appear under the same head, which should be separate, and the record bears upon its face much interlineation, showing a want of careful work.

In the Journal of the Orangeburg District there is a neat roll of the Conference, yet in the proceedings of the Conference, the Secretary simply mentions the number of clerical and lay members, without giving their names; hence a future historian of Methodism would not be able to tell who were present at the last session of that Conference.

The Committee feel gratified that they are able to report a marked improvement in the work and neatness of the District Conference Journals.

Respectfully submitted, J. B. HUMBERT, Chairman.

Report of the Publishing Committee.

The Publishing Committee beg leave to make the following report;

Our paper has gone forth in its visitations among our people with unbroken regularity during the year now coming to a close. Colonel Hoyt, the publisher, has striven to make the paper deserving of the patronage of our people, and we are glad to report that he has been rewarded with a neat gain of 732 bona fide subscribers since undertaking its publication.

We commend the work of our editor, Rev. Jno. O. Willson, D.D. In the office and field he has been in labors abundant, while he has conducted the Advocate in a conservative spirit, he has stood by the Church and her institutions, has been pronounced in upholding the right and condemning the wrong; and withal has made the paper equal to any organ of our sister Conferences.

The royalty account has been audited and found to be correct.

Your Committee, while congratulating the Conference upon the success that has attended their efforts to enlarge the circulation of our Conference organ, would respectfully ask that we do not relax our efforts in its behalf, but press the matter upon our people until this most helpful visitor shall brighten with its presence every Methodist home within our borders.

Report of Committee on Minutes.

The Committee on Minutes beg leave to report:

The account of the publishers of the minutes, Bros. E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman, was submitted to the Committee and found correct. These brethren deserve the sincere thanks of this Conference for their excellent work.

The following are the receipts for 1897:

From Pastoral Charges,	$530.35
" Legal Conferences,	20.00
	$550.35

We nominate E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman as editors and publishers of the minutes of this session of the Conference. We recommend an assessment of $600 be made for the publication of the minutes of 1898. We also recommend that the preachers sell the minutes received at 15 cents per copy, the proceeds to go to the credit of their assessment.

Report of the Board of Missions.

The Board of Missions has endeavored to look closely into the spiritual and material condition of the various missions within the bounds of the Conference. From the reports of those who have served these missions it is evident that the past ecclesiastical year has been one of real progress in many particulars. The Board concurs in the opinion that the term "mission" should be eliminated from those circuits which bear it, and that a name be given to those charges designated as "city missions," and that the term "city mission" be left off in the designation of these charges.

After as careful an examination as the Board could possibly give to the great work committed to its supervision, it is gratifying to learn that the money expended for Domestic Missions is most worthily and profitably expended.

We do not deem it necessary to speak of the missions under the care of the Board seriatim, as the financial and statistical reports of these charges, as spread upon the pages of our Minutes, show their real development and progress from year to year. Indeed the large number of charges—sixty-six—receiving appropriations from the Board, and regarded as missions, precludes the possibility of incorporating a notice of them all in our report. We can only say that while all of them seem to have made progress, some of them have made very great progress.

One new mission, to be known as St. Stephens, was created in the Charleston District. Five other charges in that district receive aid from the Board. The Cokesbury District has only four missions within its bounds. There are six missions in the Columbia District. Seven circuits in the Florence District and twelve charges in the Greenville District receive aid from the Board. One new mission has been formed in the Rock Hill District, Laurel Street, in the city of Rock Hill. Four circuits in that district also receive aid foom the Board. Two new missions have been created in the Greenville District, to be known as Pelzer and Pelham. Seven circuits in the Marion District receive aid from the Domestic Mission fund. One new mission was also created in the Orangeburg District, located in the city of Orangeburg. Four circuits in this District receive aid from the Board. In the Spartanburg District there are eight charges under the supervision of the Board, and seven in the Sumter District.

The Board has decreased the assessment for Domestic Missions for the year 1898, and the appropriations made to the various charges are based on the barest actual needs of these charges, and also upon the supposition that the Church will pay every dollar of this very important assessment. The Board therefore asks that the assessment for Domestic Missions be separated from all other claims, and that the preachers present it to the people on its merit, with the assurance to the people that every dollar of the assessment is needed. With profoundest faith in the people called Methodist to meet every worthy demand for every good work, the Board seeks to impress every member of our Church, within the bounds of this Conference, with the importance, the magnitude and the absolute necessity of maintaining our Domestic Missionary work, not only from an aggressive standpoint, but to rescue our fellow-men from the inroads of Mormonism and the degradation of sin.

Report of Special Committee on Bishop Capers' Communication.

To the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

Your committee to whom was referred the communication from Bishop Ellison Capers, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, begs leave to report that it has duly considered and does most heartily endorse the purpose and spirit of said communication; and your committee, recognizing fully that there seems to be in our country a growing disregard of human life, and believing in the power of the pulpit to effect moral and social reforms, does hereby call upon all our preachers to join their brethren of the Protestant Episcopal Church in a special effort to save our people from the curse of blood-guiltiness, and to this end we submit for your adoption the following resolutions, to-wit:

Resolved, That this Conference keenly appreciates the evil so strongly condemned by the Diocesan Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Diocese of South Carolina, and hereby pledges said Church our most hearty co-operation in suppressing said evil.

Resolved, That we fully recognize the good that may be accomplished by the concurrent effort of all the clergy of Christian churches, and for the purpose of securing such concurrent effort, we hereby call upon all our ministers to prepare and preach a special sermon on the sin and crime of murder.

Resolved, That said sermon be preached on Sunday, December 19, 1897, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

J. A. CLIFTON, Chairman.

Committee on Sunday Mails.

Whereas, Bishop P. F. Stevens, of the Reformed Episcopal Church, has requested this Conference to co-operate with him in petitioning the Postmaster General to discontinue the transportation of the United States mail on the Sabbath, therefore be it Resolved, by the South Carolina Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South, that Rev. W. W. Duncan, D.D., our presiding Bishop, be requested to sign the accompanying petition for the Conference.

J. THOS. PATE,
G. P. WATSON,
R. L. COLEMAN,

Resolution on Prohibition.

Whereas, the unparalleled increase of crimes of violence within the State during the current year, having their source in drinking intoxicating liquors, points indisputably to the traffic in intoxicants, legalized and illicit, as their prime cause, and calls loudly upon all Christians and good citizens for protests against any legal sanction of said traffic, and for active and unremitting efforts to suppress it. And, whereas, as Christian ministers we are painfully cognizant of the dire effects of this traffic in demoralizing the people and placing almost insurmountable barriers to the progress of the Kingdom of Christ in our midst, and sowing broadcast the seeds of want, disease, suffering and moral and spiritual death; therefore be it

Resolved, That this Annual Conference hereby records its solemn conviction that it is the duty of the General Assembly of the State at once to devise measures for the prompt and effectual prohibition of the liquor traffic within the State, excepting for medicinal, scientific and mechanical uses, and that we urge upon our ministry and people that they cannot remain silent or idle in this matter without becoming responsible, in their measure, in the sight of God for the continuance of the evil.

Resolved, That we pledge our prayers, our earnest sympathy, our hearty co-operation and support, and the active aid of all our powers in furtherance of any efforts which may be made to secure the enactment of laws prohibiting the liquor traffic.

Resolved, That in this crisis in the public sentiment on this subject we enjoin upon all our members the duty of personal abstinence from all intoxicants and discountenancing their use by others, and their hearty co-operation in all measures for the suppression of the liquor traffic, as the only course consistent with their vows to Christ, and his church, and their obligations to their fellow men.

Resolved, That when practicable only unfermented wines be used in the sacramental services.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the chair to memorialize the General Assembly, praying the enactment of such legislation as will prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes.

Resolved, That these resolutions be read by each preacher in the month of January in each charge, and that sermons be preached on this subject as often as practicable during the year.

Respectfully submitted, L. D. CHILDS, Chairman.

CONCERNING LOCAL PREACHERS AND MEMBERS.

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to be held at Baltimore, Md, on the 5th day of May, 1898:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—The last General Conference of our church having taken from our Quarterly Conference the right to license local preachers, and having conferred that right upon our District Conference, further legislation, in order to harmonize and make more effective the law upon the subject, is now almost a necessity. We therefore respectfully memorialize your Honorable Body to make the following alteration changes, amendments and additions to our book of Discipline:

I. That paragraph 82, of Section IV, Chapter II, and question 19 of paragraph 87, be amended by striking out the words "local preachers and,' occurring in the second line of said paragraph, and in the first line of the question.

II. That paragraph 83, of same section and chapter, be entirely stricken out.

III. That paragraphs 170 and 171, of Section XI, Chapter III, and paragraph 289, of Section IV, Chapter VII; and paragraphs 308, 309, 310 and 311, of Section II, Chapter VIII; and paragraph 319, of Section II, Chapter IX; and question 5, of Section IV, Chapter VII, be amended by striking out the words "Quarterly Conference" wherever they occur in said paragraphs and questions, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "District Conference."

IV. That paragraph 75, of Section III, Chapter II, be amended by adding to said paragraph, immediately after the last word of the same, the following: "It shall also take cognizance of all local preachers in the District, shall inquire annually into the gifts, labors and usefulness of each by name; and shall try, suspend, expel or acquit any and all such preachers against whom charges may be made."

V. That paragraph 120, of Section IV, Chapter III, be stricken out and the following substituted in its place:

¶ 120. "To preach the Gospel, and, in the absence of the Presiding Elder or Bishop, to control the appointment of all services to be held within the bounds of his charge. And it shall not be lawful for any local or traveling preacher, exhorter or layman to enter into the bounds of the charge of another preacher and engage in a series of religious services, without the consent of the preacher in charge; and any preacher, exhorter or layman violating this paragraph shall be proceeded against as in cases of immorality."

VI. That all of paragraphs 281, 282, 283, 284, 285 and 286, of Section IV, Chapter VII, be stricken out and the following substituted in their place:

"Question 1. To whom is a local preacher amenable for his conduct?"

"¶ 281. Answer 1, To the District Conference within the bounds of which the offence is committed, which shall have the power to try, and to acquit, suspend or expel him."

"Question 2. What shall be done when a local preacher is accused of immorality, or when he is charged with having violated paragraph 120, of Section IV, Chapter III?"

"¶ 282. Where a local preacher is under report of immorality, or is accused thereof in writing signed by a member of our Church; or when complaint is made that he has violated paragraph 120, of Section IV, Chapter III, the Presiding Elder of the District where the offence is committed, shall appoint a committee of three, composed of preachers, or laymen, or both, living within the district, to investigate the report, complaint or charges and report whether a trial be necessary. Said committee shall be presided over by the Presiding Elder appointing the committee, in all cases where it is possible for him to do so, and in his unavoidable absence, by a Chairman appointed by him, who shall hear and determine all questions of law that may arise during the investigation. The Presiding Elder shall appoint a Secretary whose duty it shall be to keep a true and full record of all the proceedings of the committee; but neither the Chairman nor the Secretary shall be allowed to vote upon the questions coming before the committee. If, after investigation, the committee deem a trial necessary, they shall at once notify the accused, and such notice, without any further notice, or proceeding, shall suspend the accused until his case is heard and is finally disposed of. They shall also formulate a bill of charges and specifications against the accused; shall present to him a copy of the same a sufficient length of time before the meeting of the District Conference which is to try him, to enable him to prepare for his trial; and shall appoint some member of the Conference to prosecute the case before the Committee of trial hereinafter provided for.

"¶ 283. After a full investigation of the report, complaint or charges has been made and a conclusion thereon reached, if the committee of investigation deem a trial necessary, the chairman of the said committee shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, notify all the material witnesses in the case to be and appear before the committee of trial provided for in paragraph 286 to give their testimony. If such witnesses cannot be induced to attend the trial, then, in that case, the Presiding Elder who appointed the committee of investigation, or his successor in office, shall appoint some discreet and impartial member of his district to take the testimony of such witness. The person so appointed, as soon as practicable after he has received notice of his appointment, shall give reasonable notice to all the parties in the action, if they can be found, of the time and place of such examinations; and shall allow them the privilege of cross-examination if they are present and desire it. If the parties, after reasonable inquiry, cannot be found, then the examination shall be proceeded with, just as though the parties had received due and legal notice of the same. The testimony so taken, shall be delivered to the chairman of the investigating committee, and shall be laid before the committee of trial as evidence in the case. When the investigation is finally completed, and all the evidence of such witnesses taken, all the records in the case, including the charges, evidence and findings of the committee, signed by the chairman and secretary, shall be transmitted to the Districts Conference having jurisdiction of the case, for trial and final determination. If the committee of investigation report a trial necessary, the President of the Conference shall at once appoint a committee of trial as provided for in paragraph 286, and the accused shall then and there be put upon his trial. If the committee of investigation report a trial unnecessary, and the Conference differ in judgment from the committee, a second committee shall be appointed to inquire into the facts and their report shall be final.

"¶ 284. When the accusation is preferred during a session of the District Conference, it shall first be referred for investigation to a committee of three members of the Conference, appointed by the President, which shall report to the Conference whether or not they deem a trial necessary. If the Conference differ in judgment from the committee, a second committee shall be appointed to enquire into the facts, and their report shall be final.

"¶ 285. The committee of investigation reporting a case for trial, shall formulate a bill of charges and specifications, and shall appoint some member of the Conference to prosecute the case.

"¶ 286. Every case to be tried shall be referred to a committee of not less than nine nor more than thirteen, to be appointed by the President of the Conference; which said committee, in the presence of the President and Secretary of the Conference, or in the presence of the Chairman and Secretary appointed by the President of the Conference, shall have full power to try the case, and their decision shall be final, save as to the right of appeal. The Chairman of the committee shall hear and determine all questions of law arising during the progress of the trial, and the Secretary shall keep a full record of all the proceedings; but neither shall be allowed to vote upon any question coming before the committee. Provided, that the accused shall be allowed the right of peremptory challenge of five in a committee of thirteen, and three in a committee of nine, besides the right of unlimited challenge for cause. The Chairman of the committee shall determine the validity of all challenges for cause, and shall have the power to fill all vacancies occurring on the committee from any cause. At the conclusion of the case the committee shall make a written report to the Conference, and shall deliver to the Secretary of the Conference the whole record of the case, with the decision rendered. If the accused is found guilty, the President of the Conference trying the case, shall cause a true and correct copy of the decision of the committee, signed by the President and Secretary, to be at once transmitted to the President of the District Conference where the accused holds his membership; and this last named President shall, at the next meeting of his District Conference, cause the same to be read before the Conference and recorded on the journal of the Conference."

TRAVELING PREACHERS.

We further ask that the following changes be made in the law governing traveling preachers:

I. That paragraph 264, of Section II, Chapter VII, be amended by inserting in said paragraph, immediately after the word Conference, in the first line thereof, the words "within the bounds of which the offense is committed."

II. That question 2, of same Section and Chapter be amended by adding to the said question immediately after the last word of the same, the following: "Or when complaint is made that he has violated paragraph 120, of Section IV, Chapter VII?"

III. That paragraph 265, of Section II, Chapter VII, be amended by inserting in said paragraph, immediately after the word "church" on the fourth line of said paragraph, the words "or if complaint be made that he has violated paragraph 120, of Section IV, Chapter III." That the said paragraph be further amended by striking out the words "of which he is a member," beginning on the fifth line of said paragraph, and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "having jurisdiction of the offense."

IV. That paragraphs 266 and 269, of the same Section and Chapter, be amended by striking out the words "which he is a member" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "having jurisdiction of his case."

V. That paragraph 273 of same Section and Chapter be amended by adding to said paragraph, immediately after the last word in same, the following: "If the accused is found guilty, the president of the Conference trying the case, shall cause a true and correct copy of the decision of the committee, signed by the president and secretary, to be transmitted to the president of the Annual Conference, of which the accused is a member, and this last named president shall at the next session of said Conference, cause the same to be read before the Conference, and recorded upon the Conference Journal."

PROBATIONERS.

We further ask that the following change be made in the law governing probationers:

I. That paragraph 280 of Section III, Chapter VII, be amended by striking out the words "Quarterly Conference," occurring on the second line of said paragraph, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "District Conference."

EXHORTERS AND MEMBERS.

We further ask that the following changes be made in the laws governing exhorters and members;

I. That question 1, Section V, Chapter VII, be stricken out and the following substituted in its place;

"Question 1. What shall be done when an exhorter or member of the Church is accused of immorality; or when complaint is made that they have violated paragraph 120, of Section IV, Chapter III?"

II. That paragraph 291, of Section V, Chapter VII, be entirely stricken out, and the following substituted in its place;

¶ 291. Answer 1. "When an exhorter or member of the Church is under report of immorality, or accused thereof in writing signed by a member of our Church; or when complaint is made that they have violated paragraph 120, of Section IV, of Chapter III, the preacher, within the bounds of whose charge the offense has been committed, shall appoint a committee of three discreet members of the church, who shall investigate the report, complaint or charges. If upon investigation they deem a trial necessary, they shall formulate a bill of charges and specifications, and shall appoint some member of the Church to prosecute the case."

III. That paragraph 292, of same Section and Chapter, be amended by striking out the words "to which the accused belongs," on the fifth line of said paragraph, and inserting in the place thereof "where the offense was committed."

That said paragraph be further amended by adding immediately after the last word of said paragraph the following: "He shall also notify the preacher in charge of the work where the accused holds his membership, of such decision; and the preacher in charge of said work, shall at the next Church Conference, of which the accused is a member, publicly announce such decision and cause it to be recorded upon the Church Conference Journal."

IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED IN 1897.

Rev. Wm. Wynn Mood.

Rev. Wm. Wynn Mood, the fourth son of Rev. John and Catherine Mood, and brother of Revs. Henry M., John A. and F. Asbury Mood, was born September 28th, 1827, at Glenn Springs, S. C. His father was at that time a member of the South Carolina Conference, but soon after, through feeble health, located. He settled in Charleston, which thus to manhood became the home of our subject.

Of this early life of Wm. W. Mood at home we may say that it touched the most pronounced type of Methodism, and from it resulted the lofty ideals of his Christian character. His educational advantages were of the best, and he was finally graduated from Charleston College.

Brother Mood was converted at Cainhoy camp meeting April 20th, 1840, under the preaching of Bishop J. O. Andrew. He was licensed to exhort from Bethel Church February 1st, 1848, and licensed to preach March 20th, 1850. He was received on trial into the South Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, at Wadesboro, N. C., December 1850, and served in all nineteen pastoral charges, some of them twice.

He was three times married. First to Miss Lucy J. Rogers, of Bishopville. Mrs. Mood died September, 21st, 1868, leaving one son, Wm. Reader Mood, M.D., now of Ridgeway. His second wife was Miss Gregory, of Union. She died January 2d, 1883, leaving three children—Percy, Emma and Rosa. His third wife was Mrs. Lou. R. Williamson, daughter of Col. and Mrs. J. E. Rembert, of Sumter, who survives him.

The evening of his life, after his superannuation at the close of 1884, was spent at Mechanicsville, at Ridgeway, and in Sumter. He died in Sumter January 11, 1897.

Brother Mood literally gave his life to God. He was a man of one work, and loved it. His preaching was orthodox to the core. He believed in the Holy Ghost, and consequently many souls were saved through his instrumentality. His tender and sympathetic nature made him a most popular and successful pastor. The gospel had from his lips no uncertain sound. He presented Jesus as a Saviour under every conceivable condition of human need. The sick room, the heart in sorrow, affliction and bereavement were his thrones of power. He was a most systematic worker, and highly successful. He was never absent from Conference, and never failed to answer the first roll call. He loved his brethen, and had a warm place in their affections.

At our last Conference in Abbeville he was feeble, and yet we had not expected him to fall so soon. His last attack was sharp and decisive. He failed to rally. There, in his chamber, the angels of God met him, and he left the scenes of his earthly toil for rest with God.

WM. A. ROGERS.

Rev. Lucius Skottowe Bellinger, M.D.

It has been said that a fully developed man is the product of more than one generation. The subject of this memoir was the result of the union of two old historic families, who had developed the highest virtues—the Bellinger and the Salley. He was the son of the noted and honored Rev. Lucius Bellinger, and was born in Barnwell District, South Carolina, March 3d, 1833. He was of fine physique, medium height and weight, lithe and vigorous. His features manifested the excellence of spirit, which chiseled and illumined them. His quick and vigorous mind took hold of the subject-matter which he had under consideration with efficiency. A quiet, unassuming dignity and kindness of spirit characterized him through life He was cheerful and affable, without being light and frivolous; he was grave without being dull or somber. We would have taken him to be a gentleman in any company, though he spoke not a word.

He was converted at Zion Church, which was then a part of the old Walterboro circuit, on March 2d, 1850. It was the privilege of the writer to witness his espousal to God on that happy occasion. From that time forth, he never faltered in the way of life.

He was graduated in medicine, and soon thereafter entered upon a fine practice. As a physician he was a success. His professional skill, his quiet dignity and sympathetic demeanor won for him the esteem and confidence of his patrons.

He married Miss Annie E. Rump, who proved a help-meet to him to the day of his death. Though he had no children, she was more to him than many sons and daughters. He was the elder school-mate and the family physician of the writer in the most trying years of his life. We were admitted into the adytum of his soul, and we found him true and worthy in the most secret places of his noble nature.

His Quarterly Conference, satisfied with his gifts and graces, licensed him to preach the gospel. The judgment of his brethren was fully vindicated in his life of piety, energetic performance of duty and success in the ministry of the Word. In 1885, his presiding elder, Rev. Thomas Raysor, who knew him well nigh from his earliest boyhood, put him in charge of Orange circuit. This year's work drew him away from his moorings in secular life, and he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference December 1885. His entire ministerial life was spent within the bounds of the Orangeburg District, except his last few days. His appointments were as follows: Boiling Springs circuit in 1886-87-88; South Branchville circuit in 1889-90-91-92; Blackville, 1893; Orange, 1894-95-96. In 1897 he was appointed to Georgetown circuit. He promptly reported, preached a few times, captured all hearts, sickened and died in five days, January 15th, 1897, at Sampit, S. C., amid the prayers and tears of his grief-stricken people It is seldom the lot of a preacher to get the ear and gain the hearts of his people in so short a time as did Dr. Bellinger. He was a sound, strong, spiritual preacher and a power in revival meetings—his heart burned with holy fire and his tongue spoke as if touched by a live coal from off the heavenly altar. Many were turned from darkness into light, and from the power of Satan unto God through his ministry. Many homes were cheered and blessed by his presence, counsel and prayers, which never before had enjoyed a pastoral visit.

The people were impressed by his quiet dignity and loving grace of deportment. He was but a short time with his last charge, but long enough to create memories that shall be precious forever. They were impressed with his quiet dignity and loving grace, his strong, spiritual sermons. He moved among them as a prince. Neither disease nor death could rob him of his mental and spiritual graces. It is said that in his delirium he imagined that his congregation was before him, and he preached a sermon of remarkable point, pathos and power. Read what his Israelitish doctor, M. S. Iseman, eloquently said of him:

"I saw my patient for the first time as he lay prone upon his bed, tossing with pain and delirium; neither suffering nor the ravages of a mortal disease could mar the benign expression of striking dignity of a face cast in such kingly mould.

"At brief intervals a gleam of returning consciousness would enable him to recognize those at his bedside. Even at this moment I can recall the smile, the charming manners, and above all the cheerful play of sunlight illumining his features during those flitting moments of lucidity.

"He would open those large, bright blue eyes of his—a soft, melting blue—beaming with kindness and boundless love, answer a few questions intelligently, never failing as oft as he recoguized me to inquire after his old friend and companion, Brother Stokes, whom he knew lay ill at Georgetown. All through his brief illness, he was still the watchman on the heights, the shepherd calling to his flock; as he had lived so would he die, with the name and battle-cry of his Master upon his lips.

"Alas, the transition was rapid. The day before he passed away I knew the fair-haired Levite had sung his last canticle before his earthly altar, and when next he would swing the golden censer, it would be in that temple where the Urim and Thummim dims not upon the breastplate of the faithful and the light burns before the mercy-seat forever "

Though in illness, he had no relative or early friend with him, but his wife, though surrounded only by those who were but recently strangers in the flesh, yet all that skill and money and loving sympathy could do, was done. He was promptly removed from the parsonage by Brother Benjamin D. Bourne, into his own comfortable home, where all the offices of brotherly love were ministered. But he is gone from us—his spirit to the paradise of God—his body rests near by the dark rolling Sampit, Georgetown County, South Carolina—soon to be removed to Orangeburg, S. C. Farewell, dear brother, thou associate of my youth and friend of my riper years. I mourn thee, but I do not deplore thee ; for

"I know thou hast gone where thy forehead is starred
With the beauty that dwelt in thy soul—
Where the light of thy loveliness cannot be marred,
Nor thy heart be flung back from its goal.
I know thou hast drunk of the Lethe that flows
Through a land where they do not forget,
That sheds over memory only repose
And takes from it only regret." A. J. STOKES.

Rev. A. H. Lester, A. M.

Rev. Archibald H. Lester, was born in Greenville County, S. C., June 12th, 1828. He was the son of Philip and Nancy Lester. His early educational advantages were well improved, and he graduated from Erskine College at twenty-one years of age. During the war between the States a distinguished Hebrew scholar became an inmate of his home, and he made most excellent use of this opportunity to increase his already large store of learning. He was widely read in general literature, and his own productions present fine specimens of brilliant thought, expressed in pure, elegant diction. His work as professor in Wofford College is most gratefully remembered by the students then in the institution. He aroused within them a desire to acquire knowledge. Having at that time ample means, he taught without salary, showing his devotion to the Church and to the cause of learning.

He was converted in early life, uniting with the Church when quite young He was admitted into the South Carolina Conference on trial in 1851. The appointments he received were as follows : 1852, Pendleton circuit ; 1853-54, Union circuit ; 1855, Cokesbury circuit ; 1856-57, Yorkville station ; 1858, Marion Street, Columbia ; 1859, Cheraw station ; 1860, Spartanburg station ; 1861-64, Greenville circuit ; 1865-66, supernumerary ; 1867-73, Professor in Wofford College ; 1874-77, Union station ; 1878, Florence station ; 1879-80, Chester station ; 1881-82, Marion station ; 1883, Lancaster station ; 1884, Winnsboro station ; 1885-88, Georgetown station ; 1889, Beaufort station ; 1890, superannuated ; 1891, Cartersville circuit ; 1892-97, superannuated.

During the period he was effective he went cheerfully to the work assigned him. As is readily seen, he served many of the most important charges in our Conference. His health was never robust, but he wrought in all his fields of labor faithfully. He was kind and sympathetic in his care for his flock ; was genial in his intercourse ; was ever a most welcome visitor in the homes of his people, his ministrations being uplifting. His preaching was always instructive ; at times accompanied with eloquence and power. His subject-matter was chaste, elegant and scholarly. Being unusually well versed in Hebrew and Greek, he was able to bring out with beauty and force the meaning of the text. While he preached the gospel in simplicity and force to all classes, his ministry was peculiarly suited to the thoughtful and scholarly. He had made critical research in many of the fields of Bible study and was deeply learned in its sacred lore. The Holy Spirit also made his studies of the Word luminous, so that he was unusually well equipped for his high and holy ministry.

He was married at Yorkville, S. C., November 27th, 1856, to Miss Margaret C.

Miller; in Chester County, S. C., October 26th, 1858, to Miss Susan J. McCollough; in Spartanburg, S. C., April 4th, 1865, to Mrs. Harrit R. Flemming, nee Walker. Dr. W. M. Lester, of Columbia, S. C., is his only surviving child. He is a son of the second marriage. The children of his last wife, Mr. Jas. Fleming, now of Union County, S. C, and Mrs. Mary Trimmier, now of Spartanburg, S. C., received from him a father's care and were much devoted to him. The home life of Brother Lester was affectionate, beautiful and refined.

The piety of our dear brother was simple, without ostentation, but abiding. In all the misfortunes and sorrow that came to him he endured as seeing Him who is invisible. Cheerfulness never forsook him. He maintained to the end his sweet, happy, contented disposition. As the end came very near he knew "whom he trusted" and was satisfied. He died April 25th, 1897, at the home of his son, Dr. W. M. Lester, Columbia, S. C. All that filial affection could do to stay disease was done. The ministries of love were freely given. He passed away from us gently; he triumphed at the last, escaped from his sufferings, rested from his labors at peace with God and man, and doubtless awaits us in the home of the blest.

Rev. Henry M. Mood, A. M.

Rev. Henry McFarlane Mood sprang from an excellent ancestry. In this ancestry mingled the blood of the German and Scotch. Where these unite, the result is a strong manhood and a granite nature, a bright mind and a symmetrical character. His father was a man of great energy and massive faith, of pure heart and holy life. His mother was tender, sympathetic, cultured, and "as beautiful as the lily of the valley." He was the eldest of five children. His parents had formerly been rich, but misfortune stole their wealth, and the father had to struggle to "keep the wolf from the door." This was the condition of affairs on February 14th, 1819, when Henry first gazed on the light. The city of Charleston, with its Italian skies and Palmetto trees, was his birth-place. The beauty and the aroma of this city entered largely into his life.

Early in life his character revealed great independence. No pitiable mendicant would he be. In boyhood we find him not only full of indomitable energy, but the master of a trade. This trade minted for him silver and gold. When God spoke to his heart and unveiled to him that He desired that his life should be given to the ministry, he affirmed that it was "a call to prepare to preach." He realized the stern necessity of fitting himself to present Christ to the best advantage. He had rich friends; friends that were ready to give him an education. Their money could have been secured for the asking. He writes in his diary, "Such help would be disastrous to my manhood." Again he says, "I cannot afford to thus pauperize myself." The story of his desperate battle to win money to pay for a thorough training that would qualify him for the sacred office thrills with the purest heroism. No stronger or more dauntless courage was shown by Prince Frederick Charles at the battle of Sadowa, and in the struggle he triumphed over every difficulty. For his education at Cokesbury, and the full course at the college at Charleston, he was indebted to no man. He graduated with honor and at the same time accumulated money.

1. His heart was intensely missionary. His father and mother originated the first Sunday school for Negroes in this State. He was one of their most efficient teachers. Inveterate prejudice ran high. Its face was as cruel as that of Robespierre. Threats of "a coat of tar and feathers" did not deflect him from his work. None of these things moved him, neither did he count his life dear unto himself. Paul-like, he pressed forward. Like Savonarola, he would have allowed every drop of blood in his veins to boil at the stake before he would have laid down his charge.

Fifty-two years subsequently a Negro preacher, a man who stands high in the councils of his church, and whose influence for good is large, wrote him that it was his instruction that led him to the cross of Christ. His zeal for missions did not culminate with the sons and daughters of Ham. While pastor of the Cokesbury circuit he emphasized Home and Foreign Missions with such strength and force that the people of that charge paid one thousand dollars to the cause. The adjacent charges caught the contagion and the influence spread over the whole State. The result was that a tidal wave of missionary zeal swept the Conference.

2. In him education had one of its truest and ablest friends. He was a born educator. He acquired a vast store of information, and he had the ability to impart what he knew. For years he was the president of Davenport Female College. Later on, and in the most stormy and perilous period of our Commonwealth's history, he was president of the Columbia Female College. Through those years "that tried men's souls" he carried the institution successfully. Dr. Arnold, of Rugby, never left a deeper impress for good upon any pupil, than this consecrated man. The love of his pupils for him was akin to that of Mary and Martha for the Divine Teacher.

3. Temperance had in him one of its most valiant apostles. John B. Gough, in his appeals for a sober life, based his call on self-preservation. With all the zeal, earnestness and eloquence of that call, it was nothing more than a clarion note for self-interest. Henry M. Mood's appeal was laid on something higher. It was on the sublime ground of God's eternal Word. In this respect he was Gough's superior. No man that ever walked on Carolina's soil equals him in advancing temperance within our border. The vast prohibition sentiment that covers our State, carpeting it from the blue mountains of Walhalla to the emerald flats of Cainhoy, is largely the growth from the seed he broadcast over the land.

4. The pu pit was his throne of power. At the Newberry Conference he preached the "annual sermon to the Undergraduates." Dr. Geo. W. Holland, who was then president of the Lutheran College, was one of his hearers. The next morning, in speaking of the sermon, this distinguished man remarked: "If I had known that such a rare treat was in store for young ministers and those looking forward to the ministry, I would have required all the students of the college to have attended that service. He is certainly a man, not only of polish, but of profound scholarship—my ideal of what a minister of the gospel should be." This encomium is not too strong. Fron my boyhood I was accustomed to attend upon his ministry. Saint and sinner Jew and Gentile, heard him gladly. No man could sit under his preaching without, having his mental horizon enlarged and his aspirations after a holy life greatly intensified.

5. As the friend of the young he had no superior. Paul never loved Timothy and Titus more than he loved the young men that crossed his path. Twice fortunate was the young man that came within the reach of his tender touch. For years I boarded in his family. We were together almost every day From no preacher have I ever received more or larger help. It was help that did not debilitate and enervate, but it strengthened and invigorated every fibre of the soul. My experience was the experience of scores of others. The young men loved him as the marshals of France loved "the Man of Destiny." Well might they love him, for he was worthy of it all. There was about him none of that fetid and contemptible air of the little man who is only the creature of circumstances, but there was in his every movement the assurance of brotherhood. Though the young men felt so free in his company, yet they realized that he was a kingly man.

6. Of his family life I would not speak, except to say, from the day, January 15th, 1846, when Miss Laura A. Clark became his happy bride, no lady ever had a better husband, and no husband a more faithful wife. His four living children, namely, Mrs. C. E. Stubbs, Mrs. B. M Badger, Mrs. Isaac Ingram and Dr. J. A. Mood rise up and bless his memory. Loving and true was he to those who stood nearest his heart. Around them was thrown an affection as exquisite as a circlet of diamonds. His home was holy ground.

In the latter months of his earthly life, God allowed him to be tossed into the furnace of pain. The heat was intense. As he walked over the glowing embers, environed by the fiery heat, not a murmur escaped his lips: not a gesture of impatience broke the waves of air. The fires that burned John Huss to a crisp, were not more severe than these physical agonies. In the most excruciating hour he would whisper, "God's will be done." From these flames he came forth as perfect as the "the Seer of the land of Uz." On Sunday, May 2d, 1897, the angels met him. From that hour he ceased to live on earth. He is at home with God!

J. THOS. PATE.

Rev. Robert Alston Few.

It is seldom we, as a Conference, are called upon to review the life and lament the death of a brother so young as Robert Alston Few.

He was born January 6th, 1865, in Greenville County, S. C., and died at his fathers's home in the same county, August 8th, 1897.

Brother Few was only thirty-two years of age, but in piety, in purity, and in devotion to God and His cause he had developed and ripened like unto one of mature age. He is the son of Dr. B. F. and Mrs. M. K. Few, who are devoted Methodists, and before their boy lived exemplary lives.

He was born near the closing hours of the "Civil War," just as the din of battle was dying away from our Southern clime, and amid the tranquil scenes of a happy Christian home he began his bright and beautiful life, which at no period waned, but grew brigther, stronger and nobler, until the sun went down without a cloud to dim his eternal sky.

It was my privilege to know Brother Few from boyhood. I was his pastor and friend at the time he was getting ready for the ministry, and we were frequently together. I always found him gentle, confiding and true. He was as unpretentious as a child. I never saw him at any time or place when he could not have been pointed out as a fine type of the gentleman. In life and conversation he was modest and unassuming, and in character he was decided and stainless. He won my admiration and confidence as a youth and in manhood I loved him as a friend and a brother.

He was dedicated to God in baptism by his father and mother when an infant, which rite he ratified by assuming the vows of the Church at the age of fourteen. No one seems able to point to any definite period when he professed conversion. In fact, he never settled upon any exact date himself, but "claimed from infancy to be a child of God, and conducted himself accordingly."

There was nothing tragical in young Few's life. He had no thrilling experience to tell of how he ran counter to God's law, and to the Christian counsel of his father and mother; of how deep he went in sin, and then how powerfully and miraculously he was saved. But he had an abiding consciousness of God's approval, and this made him Christ-like and strong in the hour of temptation. As he grew in years he grew in wisdom, love and devotion for God and truth. If he had a virtue, it was purity; if a fault, it was timidity. Few men have had place among us superior to him in the chief elements of manly, Christian character. When and wherever duty called he was ready to go, and he went unmurmuringly until he had to obey the call of death.

He was graduated from Wofford College in the class of 1889. He taught school in Sumter County the latter part of the same year, and also in 1890. In the fall of 1890 he went to Anderson. S. C., and taught in the Patrick Military Institute until in the summer of 1891, after which he took a two years' course in Vanderbilt University. In November, 1893, he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference.

His first charge was Jordan circuit, where he served in 1894 and 95. In 1896 he was in charge of Swansea, and at the last session of the Conference was appointed to Indiantown circuit, and here he ended his work.

Brother Few was married on the 20th of last April to Miss Tryphosa Davis, daughter of Hon. C. M. Davis, of Clarendon County, S. C. Only a few weeks later, I met our young brother and his bride at a railroad station, where they had gone to take the train. He was going home to die. We traveled a few miles together, and when the time came for us to part, I could not help feeling that I would never see him again this side of the eternal shore.

On a Sabbath evening of last August, our dear young brother, surrounded by his loved ones, bade adieu to the scenes of earth and his spirit passed to God who gave it.

And now that he has gone from us, may his pure example, his godly life, and his unmurmuring spirit still linger with us, and may the young brethren of the Conference follow him as he followed Christ.

Handmaids of the Lord.

Since the very beginning of Christianity some of its truest friends have been women. They met every demand and measured up to every requirement. In the darkest hour they have not lost faith, and in the times of despair they saw the stars of hope shining.

No women have surpassed in devotion to the Son of God the wives of Methodist preachers. Their dauntless courage and purity of life are the admiration of men and angels. When they vanish into eternity our hearts are surcharged with grief. Five times this year has death touched a preacher's wife.

The first to whom the summons came was Mrs. Minton A. Connolly. She died at Kershaw, February 3d, 1897. Hers was a life of sore trial, but today she is at home with God.

The second to depart was Mrs. S. A. Weber. At Columbia, on March 29, 1897, she found eternal rest. Truly in her did Dr. Weber have a helpmeet. "She did him good and not evil all the days of her life." Among the people where she and her devoted husband labored, her memory will linger like the notes of the sweetest music.

The third to whom the silent messenger came was Mrs. Abram Nettles. This occurred April 25th, 1897. She was a noble woman—"full of faith and the Holy Ghost." Wherever her husband struggled and worked for the divine Master she was his inspiration and joy. To her Methodism owes no insignificant debt. Among the saints in glory she fills no small place.

The fourth to pass from our sight was Mrs. James W. Koger. On June 3d, 1897, she left "the things that are temporal," to be forever among "the things that are eternal" Whether in the home or foreign field, she was true to every duty. Whatever her hand found to do, she did it with all her might. She rests from her labors and her works speak her praise.

The last to go was Mrs. Lewis Scarboro. In Marion County, on November 23d, 1897, she was welcomed home by God. On hard fields and to forlorn hopes her husband was called to go. Nowhere did he ever "show the white feather" or sound a retreat. Behind his heroism stood this feeble and frail woman. It was the thrill of her courage that had much to do with his marvelous success. Surely in the Valhalla of glory she sways a golden sceptre.

While we weep over the loss that earth sustains in the death of these worthies, yet we thank God for their lives. Peace to their ashes, and sweet be their memory.

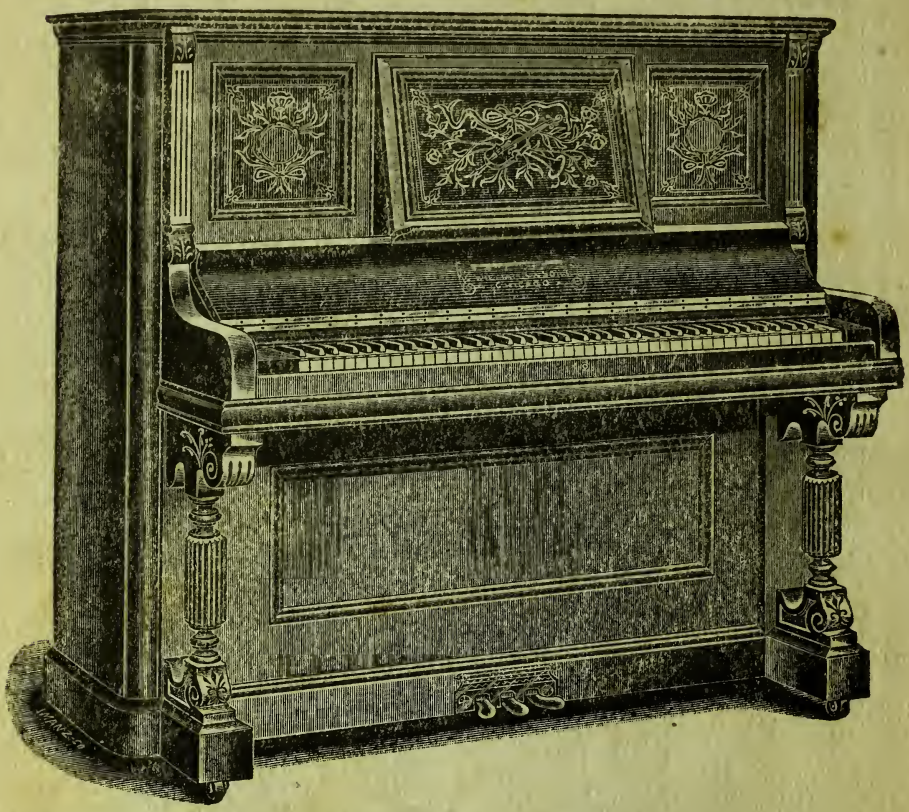
Epworth ORGANS... AND PIANOS.



You Would be Proud of an Accomplished Daughter,

But did you ever stop to think how much these delightful accomplishments depend upon having the opportunity IN TIME? If you can possibly afford it, give her the opportunity—GET HER THE PIANO NOW. Do without some other things if necessary. For her sake and yours, don't put it off too long.

Epworth Pianos

Are extra sweet-toned and durable pianos and remarkable value at the special prices we are now making. That's the plain truth in the matter. But you do not have to take our word, alone. We would rather have you know what others say, whose homes have been made brighter and happier by these splendid-toned pianos. Our catalogue tells the story better than we can tell it in this space. It tells why people in all parts of the United States order these instruments sent on trial, and why these same people afterwards become our most enthusiastic friends. It explains how it comes that some good pianos are sold for a great deal more than they are actually worth, and how some "cheap" pianos are scarcely worth anything, from the musician's standpoint. If you are thinking about a piano for your home, even if you are not quite ready to buy, be sure and write us to-day for our piano catalogue and special prices. Don't wait, but write to-day. We make a fine line of both Church and Parlor Organs. Our Auditorium for large churches is perhaps the Best Reed Organ made.

WILLIAMS ORGAN & PIANO CO., 57 Washington St., ...Chicago, Illinois.

If Organ Catalogue is preferred, please state whether for parlor or church, and give name of your minister as reference.
